Saturday

10 NETHERTON GROVE,
FULHAM ROAD
CHELSEA, S.W.10.

My darling Betty,
I can hardly write to you - it is so terrible even
for us, I'm pained,
and to think of your pain is nearly unbearable

I admire and love you, as I have admired and loved people - and was to feel deeply
in trying to comfort
you - I can say
nothing, only love
you both so intensely
I know you won't expect me to do
yet to do so easy to be with you, as soon as you have well - I would come, if only for a few days - Being alone here, if only, only your friends' love and sympathy could help you - George's

and great care!
if that could help. - by dear
dear Ruth, indeed

I never felt for anyone, I never felt for you. —

I shall come,
just to see you
even for a short time, as soon as you can see me.

Yours lovingly
Deaf.
