

and you would increase the obligation by previously addressing a letter to me at London. Asking whether you will be at Brinsfells next week, and how long you ^{will} remain there. In case you should succeed in procuring an order to allow my apparatus to pass the custom house without examination, to prevent delay please to have the order sent to the custom-house authorities direct.

I remain

My Dear Sir

Yours very truly

C. Wheatstone.

