

No. 6 Milton Street
Sunday, 10th Feb, 39

My dear Mr. Vandeweyer
I have long given up verse writing & never was much of a poet. But I offer these lines, in accordance ^{with} your wish, in great sincerity, as a small tribute of regard,
and a proof of my wishes ~~for~~ for your happiness & that of "the Fiancée".

Yours very faithfully
J. C. Graham

