WESTBROOK,

GODALMING.

My own dearest

I havent got a letter from you to day either.
I know you cant help it but I do want another.
I expect I shall get yesterday and today's tomorrow morning. I hoped the letter that went to Roke yesterday would have been forwarded on in time to come here this morning

I knew I could not get today because they do not come till the second post.
Father & Mildred got back at half past four yesterday they were over half an hour late and had travelled the whole way from Oxford in the goods van because the train was so frightfully full and they could not put on more coaches at Oxford because they hadnt any.
Marjorie set of plates have come back from being fixed and they really are very nice I think, they look ever every so much nicer than they did before they were fixed. I wonder what you will think of them.

I am not going to thrack today I had enough last Sunday so I expect I shall take Dan out for a stroll along the back lane towards Eashing.

I do wonder what you are doing today. I on the whole expect it is a short day for Catter's second & also to initiate Wanda perhaps some of those great lumps of rock on the way to Alwidd that we climbed about in the winter.

Quite a lot of photographs of this garden have come out in Country life this week on the whole they are very good I think.

I hope Hugh is enjoying the climbing now. I expect it only took him a little time to get into it. I do wonder how hands will get on. I sent off your short glasses & shoe horn yesterday evening so you ought to have got them by the time you get this letter

Please send me Mr Pyle's address I cant remember it & there is a parcel to send on to him.

Very very much love to you dear
I do hope you are very happy

Your loving Ruth
