

510
[? Dec 1918]

Dearest

How can I write. Here is a letter from the Headmaster saying that you may come back at once. I shall write tomorrow so you may not get this. Its too lovely. I am silly with excitement. Hurrah darling! hurrah!
I'm afraid you won't know for Christmas but you will so soon after We shall have the most heavenly time in the world I am so happy I have already telephoned to tell Mary Anne.
Just think I was in the room nearly an hour with that letter unopened.
I must stop to write to your people
Your thrilled loving Ruth.

P.T.O.

I have just received your beautiful Christmas letter Thank you so much my dear

