

Chevalier
and course he had him om of that,
of his or first
M^{rs} B.
ture
for as had
N^o 100

M^{rs} Belzoni! troubles his kindred with this second, inclosed. It of course, the Chev. Von der Myer, will hold the matter of the inclosed, Private, until it be really verified by the Loped-Ger Grant. - but he could not do less, than participate the pleasure she feels in the anticipation of such relief for the long-suffering Widow of Belzoni,
- with the Benevolent Feelings of the Chevalier, on the same subject. - If he has been successful in discovering her address at Bompels, his goodness is requested

