

Spring?
1915?
1917?

TELEPHONE:- No 15 SELSEY.
TELEGRAMS:- "MARINE, SELSEY."
STATION:- CHICHESTER.

Marine Hotel,
Selsey,
nr Chichester.

My dear George

I am waiting
this first thing on Tuesday morning & I am going up the village to try & get it off by the first post.
Marjorie has written
asking us to alter
our day of returning if possible because of Fathers fishing, so if Aunt Rosamond can have us on Wednesday we shall come home then.

I dont think either
of us will mind one day less.

The weather looks a bit better today I think we shall have sun on a off.

Yesterday we left the BBs about ~~11~~ six a repeated the walk we did on Saturday evening with them. It was misty & quite grey & very very beautiful walking along the wide wet sands with nothing but sand sea & sky to look at. I felt so far away from every thing and so much just a little bit of it all. I do like to feel like that. There's the sea the trees the flowers the birds & to feel just one of them instead of a person apart as one does in houses that is good.

I can feel more part of the spring and of it all than I have ever felt before because I'm doing what it's all doing & making more

I must go on with this letter any longer or I'm afraid shall miss the post. I hope I have it.

Very much love
Ruth

