June 26th 1837

Mr. Jane Porter has no proper apology for troubling the Rev. Mr. von-Dr. Myer again with a letter, for his kindness to put in a way of getting to Mr. Belzoni — as that of transmitting the letter open to him. That he may do so the honour of reading its contents, & seeing the matter of interest it is to the poor lady to whom it is addressed. —
