My dearest Ruth, I have just come out of examination.
I don't know who set the paper, but he just laid himself out to be nasty. However I ought to get 75% - 0 on my last week's paper I had full marks so I'm not feeling particularly downhearted.

I had a medical board this morning. I did my best to get G.S. but they said I should be unfit for a month & gave me a fortnight's light duty & fortnight's Home Service.

I don't know now what to do next. I don't expect you to be anything but pleased or myself to be more than half pleased.

I was very pleased to find a letter from Mr Benson this evening saying that A.C. Benson has a nervous breakdown & is getting on quite well - that, much better than I expected.

I don't expect to get back tomorrow; but I have put in for leave from Friday to Tuesday - I may or may not get that & I can't say for certain whether I shall get away on Friday in any case.

It was quite a pleasant evening yesterday with the Irvings. I'm sorry this is such a scraggy little letter. but I must now go off & learn something about fitting harness for the practical exam. to-morrow

Great love to you

Your loving

George.
