

July 11 1924 - Ahmetaga - Euboea

Ruth - my dear - Will has just told me - I think he's written to you -

I think you know how we both loved you both - & I think there's no help any one can give - ~~except~~ perhaps just going on loving them -

O - my dear - how I wish I could help -

We'll be back soon now - I think - & if when we get down to Cornwall you'd at all like to come - with the children - or quietly - or with your Father or Margeery - you know how much we'd love to have you.

I've always ^{wished} much we could be nearer you - now - so very much I wish it -

How happy you must be that John came - for that must have been a great joy to George.

Will has only told me after some days - (I was rather feverish) but I've known there was some sorrow on his mind -

Now he can talk of George
- I think it helps him -

Ruth - my dear - will you remember this - if at anytime in these coming years you or the children are troubled or ill - I want us - telegraph & I - or Will will come -

You have so many good friends

• but it's ^{never} easy in our life to do things quickly -

I hope John & Mark may meet soon -

My dear - goodbye -

You are so gallant - always -
- so much the wife of George -

But don't push your courage too far - come down to us & rest -

Yours
Ka -
